. . . Historical . . .

The Young Peoples' Alliance of the Evangelical Emanuel Church of Union Hill, N. J. was originally organized on February 25, 1891 by the Rev. C. Buehler who was then pastor of the Church.

The purpose of the Society as expressed in the original Constitution agrees well with the present-day conception of Young Peoples Work — the intellectual and spiritual development of the younger members and friends of the congregation, inspiring conscientious activity in order to spread the Kingdom of God.

At that time two meetings were held each month for business and social activities. Prayer Meetings were held Sunday evening before preaching service.

The Charter Members were beside the pastor Rev. C. Buehler, Mrs. Kate Buehler, Maria Prauniger, Maria Heck, Louisa Leidhecker, Minka Herrmann, Melanie Bodemann, Hulda Bodemann, Herman Vitz, Jacob Wehrli, Lilly Schuster, Anna Meisel,

Two peculiar by-laws were that the Pastor was to be the President, and those absenting themselves from the meetings should pay a fine of 25 cents which was to be placed in the missionary treasury.

The Society with others like it was organized before the denominational Alliance was founded, the first steps toward which were taken in October 1891. The Atlantic Conference Branch of which this Society is a part was organized in 1895, at which time the Society was already well developed and doing effective work.

At this time the constitution of the Society was brought into conformity with the General and Branch Young Peoples' Alliance of the Evangelical Association.

Young Peoples' Alliance

(HISTORICAL - Continued).

The minutes of the past years give continued evidence of the completeness of the organization and consecration to its work and motto "For the Glory of God and the welfare of Man."

It has been as it is to-day an organization that has the best interests of the church at heart.

In the first year of its history this Society though small planned and paid for the new illuminating system of the church (gas). When the present church edifice was built in 1900 this society took a leading part in carrying the project to completion and the Organ and large memorial window witness to the society's enthusiasm. So the Society also kept working at the reduction of the debt, and again did its part when at the golden Jubilee the last part of that indebtedness was paid.

As an evidence of the way the Society undertakes its work the contribution called for to the Superannuation Fund of the Denomination for the pensioning of aged ministers can be pointed to. The $200.00 was raised and paid in one year.

Now the Society has organized a "Pipe Organ Fund" for which it has a good beginning in hand. In this work it has the encouragement and assistance of the Ladies Aid Society and hopes with their help to soon have an adequate instrument installed.

With all the activities organized at "top-notch" the Society craves a still larger field in a still larger membership and invites the young people not otherwise affiliated to unite with it.

Connected with the Society is a Junior Department for the boys and girls from 8 to 16 years of age. This was organized on April 26th, 1909 and has been effective interesting these young people in Christian activities and preparing them for the Senior Society.

This branch of the work also met the deepest interest of our people and those whom it would help.

The religious exercises of this Anniversary marking the Jubilee were held on Sunday the 25th of February. Bishop S. C. Breyfogel D. D., LL. D. of Reading, Pa. was the Speaker of the occasion. Three Services were held: 10.30, 3.30 and 7.30 with a large attendance present.

Still wie die Nacht

Still wie die Nacht, tief wie das Meer,
Soll deine Liebe sein,
Still wie die Nacht und tief wie das Meer,
Soll deine Liebe, deine Liebe sein,
Wenn du mich liebst, so wie ich dich,
Will ich dein Eigen sein.
Heiss wie der stahl, und fest wie der Stein,
Soll deine Liebe, deine Liebe sein,
Soll deine Liebe sein.

Rockin' Time

Come lil' chil' an don' you know
It's rockin', rockin' time?
When all de birds and babies go
And mammies gather 'em jest so.
Der arms are hungry for de fill
Ob little boys alyin still.
Won't you come and try it honey,
Ain't you glad fo' rockin' time?

Rockin', rockin' time,
De sweetest time in all de day;
When pickaninnies tired of play
Come glad enough der mammie's way
All limp an' lill', an like to be
Singin' here alcne wid me,
It brings de babies back again,
Dis rockin', rockin', rockin' time.

Hush lil' chil', the crickets sing
It's rock'n., rockin' time.
An' lil' lamps d'er pert stars swing,
To see what de sandman's g'wine to bring.
An' if your eyeball's shinin so,
Fo' sure he'll find some sand to throw
Jest lie still and fool him, honey
Shut yo' eyes for rockin' time.

Die Himmel erzaehlen die Ehre Gottes

Die Himmel erzaehlen die Ehre Gottes
Und seiner Haende werk zeigt an das Firmament
Dem kommenden Tage sagt es der Tag.
Die Nacht die verschwand, der folgenden Nacht
Die Himmel erzaehlen die Ehre Gottes
Und seiner Haende werk zeigt an das Firmament
In alle Welt ergeht das Wort,
Jedem Ohre klingend, keiner Zunge fremd.
Keiner, keiner, keiner Zunge fremd.
Die Himmel erzaehlen ehre Gottes,
Und seiner Haende werk zeigt an das Firmament

The Miller's Wining

Merrily, O Merrily, the Millwheel turns today,
With splash and dash and merry crash, for the
Miller's heart is gay.
Merrily, O Merrily, the Millwheel turns today,
With splash and dash, with splash and dash, and merry crash, for the Miller's heart is gay.

Wearily, wearily, there came at eventide, a maiden fair, with shining hair, over the dark hillside.
Wearily, O wearily, cheerily, O cheerily, the Miller spake, quothe he:
Great joy were mine, didst thou incline, sweet
maid my bride to be.

Joyfully O joyfully, the maiden spake her yea.
And the bells rang soon a merry, merry tune,
for the Miller's wedding day.
Now lustily, O lustily, the Miller singeth he,
His voice keeps time with the water's chime,
And his heart from care is free.

Merrily, O merrily, the Millwheel turns around
With splash and dash and merry crash, for the Miller joy hath found.

Farewell to the Forest

Oh forest deep and gloomy, Oh woodland, vale and hill,
Of all my joys and sorrows, the gentle witness still.
When sick of worldly pleasures, leaving the busy town,
I seek thy quiet shadows, and weary lay me down,
The forest softly whispers in tones of truthful might,
It speaks of earnest duty, of what is wrong and right.
I listen to its teaching, with patient humble ear,
To me the beauteous language, shall be for ever dear.

The tranquil glades now leaving, to distant lands I roam,
Life's anxious toil pursuing, mid strangers seek a home.
Tho' far from hence repining, thrown among worldlings cold,
Fond mem'ry still shall charm me, my heart shall ne'er grow old.
